Bible dictionary definitions of “Faith”

Expository Dictionary of Bible Words (Renn):

Greek: "Pistis"

Pistis is the most common term denoting "faith" in the New Testament, with the underlying sense of "belief", "trust", and "conviction" in the person of God and Christ as the only means of salvation, forgiveness of sin, and guarantee of eternal life. In most cases, the meanings "belief" and "faith" are interchangeable.

Mounce's Expository Dictionary of Old Testament and New Testament Words:

Belief, trust, confidence. It can also mean faithfulness or trustworthiness.

Vine's Dictionary of Bible Words:

Hebrew: "Emunah" Certainty and faithfulness

Greek: "Pistis" Firm persuasion. A conviction based upon hearing

The main element in "faith" in its relation to the invisible God (as distinct from faith in man), are brought out as:

- (1) a firm conviction producing full acknowledgement of God's revelation and truth
- (2) personal surrender to Him, and conduct inspired by such surrender

The Gospel (Good News)

= 3 historical facts that you must believe, and go on believing to the end, in order to be saved.

1 Corinthians 15:1-4

(1) Now I make known to you, brethren, the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which also you stand, (2) by which also you are saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you, otherwise you have believed in vain.

(3) For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, (4) and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures ...

Faith in Jesus' work on the cross and in His resurrection allows the Holy Spirit to dwell in us (Romans 8:9) because we are sanctified by faith, and then the power of God is at work in us (Romans 1:16).

A few other New Testament Scriptures confirming that salvation depends on believing in Jesus to the end:

Jude 1:5

(5) Now I desire to remind you ... that the Lord, after saving a people out of the land of Egypt, subsequently destroyed those who did not believe.

Colossians 1:22-23

(22) yet He has now reconciled you in His fleshly body through death, in order to present you before Him holy and blameless and beyond reproach — (23) if indeed you continue in the faith firmly established and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel ...

Mark 13:13

(13) You will be hated by all because of My name, but the one who endures to the end, he will be saved.

The parable of the sower and soils = The first parable

Mark 4:2-9 = The parable

Mark 4:13 .. and He said to them, "Do you not understand this parable?
How will you understand all the parables?"

(In other words, this parable is the key to the others.
If you don't get this parable you don't get any parable.)

Mark 4:14-20 = The explanation

Seed = The Word

Type 1 (vs 15)

Along the path

People hear, but Satan robs them.

They never come to faith.

Type 2 (vs 16-17)

Among the rocks

People come to faith ... "They receive it with joy ..."
but they are "temporary".

They fall away because of "affliction and persecution"
ie, in a "time of testing" (see Luke 8:13).

Type 3 (vs 18-19)

Among the thorns

People come to faith, but are "unfruitful".

Choked by worries, the deceitfulness of riches and desire for other things.

Type 4 (vs 20)

In good soil

People come to faith and are fruitful to varying degrees.

Five warning sections in the book of Hebrews

- (1) Hebrews 2:1-4
Don't neglect your faith
Pay close attention.
Don't drift away.
Don't ignore/neglect this great salvation.
- (2) Hebrews 3:5-4:16
Don't harden your heart to the Holy Spirit
We are His if we hold fast our confidence to the end (Heb 3:6 & 14).
"Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts" (Heb 4:7)
"... let us hold fast our confession" (Heb 4:14).
- (3) Hebrews 5:11-6:12
Don't fall away — be diligent
Heb 6 ... (4) For in the case of those who have once been enlightened and have tasted of the heavenly gift and have been made partakers of the Holy Spirit, (5) and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, (6) and then have fallen away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance, since they again crucify to themselves the Son of God and put Him to open shame.
- (4) Hebrews 10:26-39
Warning against deliberate, willful sin
Heb 10 ... (26) For if we go on sinning willfully after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, (27) but a terrifying expectation of judgment and 'the fury of a fire which will consume the adversaries'.
Heb 10 ... (35) Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. (36) For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God, you may receive what was promised.
- (5) Hebrews 12:14-29
Don't despise the grace of God
Heb 12 ... (25) See to it that you do not refuse Him who is speaking. For if those did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less will we escape who turn away from Him who warns from heaven.

"Once saved, always saved"?

1) John 10:27-29

(27) My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me;
(28) and I give eternal life to them, and they will never perish; and no one will snatch them out of My hand. (29) My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

But, see John 15:1-6 (same writer, same book, same context)

(1) "I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser. (2) Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit, He prunes it so that it may bear more fruit. (3) You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. (4) Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it abides in the vine, so neither can you unless you abide in Me. (5) I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in Me and I in him, he bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing. (6) If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away as a branch and dries up; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire and they are burned."

2) Romans 8:37-39

(37) But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us. (38) For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, (39) nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

But, see Rom 11:19-22 (same writer, same book, same context)

(19) You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in." (20) Quite right, they were broken off for their unbelief, but you stand by your faith. Do not be conceited, but fear; (21) for if God did not spare the natural branches, He will not spare you, either. (22) Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off.

Boundaries of the Promised Land

Some 3,500 years ago the Canaanites inhabited the land that God promised to give to the offspring of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. God promised that He would give the land of Israel to the Jewish people as an eternal possession. The promise was unconditional. God confirmed it at least 55 times with an oath and stated at least 12 times that the covenant was everlasting.

God did bring the Israelites into the Promised Land forty years after the Exodus from Egypt. Israel reached the peak of her power some 500 years later under King Solomon.

The map shows the area that Israel controlled at that time. It almost matched the boundaries of the land that God had promised. Gaza was not taken from the Philistines in Solomon's day, and the land of the Canaanites promised to Abraham included the coastal strip all the way to Sidon – the city of Canaan's first-born son.

[1 Chronicles 1:13, Genesis 10:19]

Areas of Moab, Ammon and Edom, east of the Dead Sea, were occupied by King Solomon but were not part of the Promised Land. This is part of modern-day Jordan.

Israel entered the Promised Land and hundreds of years later, under King Solomon, they occupied a large part, but not all, of the territory which God had promised to them. Israel was required to obey the Law of Moses and, when they failed, God thrust them out of the land. However, God's promise that they will inherit the land still stands. We see the Jews being brought back to the Promised Land in our day. We expect that God's word will be fulfilled and that they will enter their full inheritance. The next question is: What are the boundaries of the Promised Land as described in the Bible?

Scripture indicates that the boundaries of the Promised Land are as follows:

South:

From the Red Sea, in the region of Eilat today, to the Sea of the Philistines which would be the Mediterranean Sea near Gaza. This southern line was to a point called the River of Egypt, or the wadi of Egypt (which was certainly not the Nile River) on the Great Sea – another name for the Mediterranean. [Exodus 23:31; Ezekiel 47:19; Genesis 15:18].

West:

The coastline of the Mediterranean – called, in those days, the Great Sea [Numbers 34:6; Ezekiel 47:20].

North:

From the Great Sea, or Western Sea – other names for the Mediterranean – through what is Lebanon and Syria today to the Euphrates River in the north [Genesis 15:18; Deuteronomy 11:24; Ezekiel 47:17; Joshua 1:4].

East:

From the Euphrates River in the north, extending south, past Damascus, along the slopes on the eastern side of the Sea of Kinnereth, what we know as the Golan Heights today. The Kinnereth is also called the Eastern Sea in Scripture and is what we know as the Sea of Galilee.

Although some of the geographical reference points mentioned in Scripture are difficult for us to identify, God knows the full area into which He is going to bring Israel. We know enough to be sure that Israel is not in her full inheritance yet.

The Bible refers to significant points that we can identify – the Sea of Kinnereth being the Sea of Galilee; the Salt Sea being the Dead Sea; and places such as Gaza and Sidon, where there is no doubt about the ancient location. Archaeology has given us proof.

What we can say is that the Promised Land stretches from the Red Sea, around Eilat, as a southern boundary, to the Mediterranean at a point south of Gaza and extending from there up the coastline at least as far north as Sidon in Lebanon, to form the western boundary, then north to the Euphrates River, to form the northern boundary, and down the line of the Jordan River to form the eastern boundary.

This area would encompass the Palestinian territories of the West Bank, also called Judea and Samaria, and Gaza. Certain world leaders may be looking for the establishment of a Palestinian state separate from Israel, but God's Word makes a different judgment. God says that this is the land that He promised to the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Scripture shows that God has a dispute with those who are involved in "dividing up My land" [Joel 3:1-2].

God warned Israel – disobey and you will be scattered

But, He always followed with promises of restoration

The regathering will be so great, they will not remember the Exodus from Egypt!

Jer 16:14-15 "Therefore behold, days are coming," declares the Lord, "when it will no longer be said, 'As the Lord lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt,'¹⁵ but, 'As the Lord lives, who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of the north and from all the countries where He had banished them.' For I will restore them to their own land which I gave to their fathers."

Jer 23:7-8 (Identical to Jer 16:14-15. The promise is repeated.)

All will be regathered:

Ezek 39:28 "I made them go into exile among the nations, and then gathered them again to their own land; and I will leave none of them there any longer."

Mic 2:12 "I will surely assemble all of you, Jacob, I will surely gather the remnant of Israel ..."

Regathering even from the west:

Hos 11:10 "... He will roar like a lion; Indeed He will roar and His sons will come trembling from the west."

A second regathering (ie, Not the return from Babylon) and no other:

Isa 11:10-11 "... it will happen on that day that the Lord will again recover the second time with His hand the remnant of His people, who will remain, from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and from the islands of the sea."

People will be in awe at their prosperity:

Jer 33:6-9 "... I will bring to it health and healing, and I will heal them; and I will reveal to them an abundance of peace and truth. I will restore the fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel and will rebuild them as they were at first. I will cleanse them from all their iniquity by which they have sinned against Me, and I will pardon all their iniquities by which they have sinned against Me and by which they have transgressed against Me. It will be to Me a name of joy, praise and glory before all the nations of the earth which will hear of all the good that I do for them, and they will fear and tremble because of all the good and all the peace that I make for it."

Salvation will come to Israel in the land of Israel:

Hos 1:10 ... in the place where it is said to them, "You are not My people," it will be said to them, "You are the sons of the living God."

Ezek 36:33 "... On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places will be rebuilt."

Ezek 20:40 "For on My holy mountain, on the high mountain of Israel," declares the Lord God, "there the whole house of Israel, all of them, will serve Me in the land; there I will accept them ..."
